A Day at Burge

Donated by Betsy & Sandy Morehouse

Join Betsy and Sandy Morehouse for a tour of Burge including tales of Yankee invasion during the Civil War. Visit the haunted cabins, the Attic Museum, and the Story Cottage to immerse yourself in the deep and fascinating history of this amazing place. Walk through Burge Organic Farm fields, too, accompanied by enlightening lessons on the economics of organic farming. Bring yourself, your family, or a small group. Depending on your preference and the time of day, your tour will be accompanied by lemonade and cookies in the morning, or wine and light nibbles in the afternoon or early evening.

THE PLANTATION: A 1,000-acre private hunt club near Mansfield, GA in Newton County, Burge Plantation (www.burgeclub.com) was established in 1809 by the great-great-great-grandfather of the present owner, Sandy Morehouse. Since that time, the land has supported row crops, cattle operations, and a dairy, and it even survived Sherman's March to the Sea – read the first-hand tales in the Story Cabin. Burge now boasts one of the largest organic farming operations in the area and of one of the finest sporting clay courses in the state. Burge is on the National Register of Historic Places and has been recognized as a Georgia Centennial Farm.

THE TALES: Betsy and Sandy Morehouse will treat you to appealing tales about Burge Plantation - some true, some outrageous.

The winning bidder will arrange the tour of Burge directly with Betsy Morehouse for a mutually agreeable time before the end of 2017.

American Pharaoh

By Lyn Jagoda

15" x 17" print, #15 of 350
(framed by the Creative Mark)

Donated by Georgia Horse Racing Coalition

When American Pharoah (foaled February 2, 2012) won the 2015 Belmont Stakes, he became the first American Triple Crown winner since 1978 when Affirmed won the Triple Crown. With his additional win of the Breeders' Cup Classic in 2015, he became the first horse ever to win the "Grand Slam" of American horse racing.

This is a special Georgia Horse Racing Coalition edition print (limited to only 350 prints) produced to help raise money for the Georgia Horse Racing Coalition's efforts to get horse racing legislation passed. Each print is a museum quality reproduction on archival paper, personally inspected before it is signed and numbered by the Artist.

When this horse was registered with the Jockey Club, "pharaoh" was misspelled ("ao" was reversed to "oa"). Therefore, his name is spelled American Pharoah on his papers.

TVs

60" Class J6200 Full LED Smart TV

Two brand new TVs (boxes opened yesterday and TVs used tonight)! These TVs retail for $1,399.99 each.

If you need to primp, book an appointment with Kathryn at Zapien's Salon ($160) (Reynolds Plantation / Greensboro location).

The stay at Brady Inn B&B is valid through May 1, 2018, excluding Home Tour weekends and Master's Week. Room choice is based on availability at time of reservation and excludes the McIntyre Guest Room.

YELLOW COLT

By Fredrick Prescott

2013, 74 x 60 x 30 inches, brilliant color on moving steel

Prescott's larger-than-life kinetic sculpture, with its captivating, multi-dimensional form, reveals the dichotomy between the real and the fantastical.

As graphically bold and colorful as this piece is, it looks perfectly at ease in a natural setting, though there is no denying its otherworldly quality.

An entire collection of these sculptures is for sale, thanks to a very generous donation by Patricia and Ben Carter in 2015. The collection currently includes five horse sculptures (two Papa Blue Horses, two Mama Red Horses, and one Yellow Colt), all different sizes. Please contact the Conservancy staff for more information.

The winning bidder will arrange delivery of the Yellow Colt sculpture with the Conservancy staff.
