Madison-Morgan Consercancy holding open house, member dinner

Editor | February 28, 2016 | Featured, News | No comments

Special to the Citizen:

The Madison-Morgan Conservancy will be hosting two events in March, one to welcome a new change and one is an annual favorite! On Monday, March 7, the Conservancy will host an open house in our new office space at 162 N. Main Street from 4-6 p.m.. Join us for light refreshments and fellowship – all are welcome! Then, on Friday, March 18, the Conservancy will host their annual Membership Supper 7-9:30 p.m., at Dan Rather’s barn at Malcom’s Crossroads. We invite you (members and non-members alike, of course) to join us for a delicious chili supper! This annual gathering is a fun, relaxed way to spend time with friends and hear about the Conservancy’s work. We will celebrate the successes of last year and look forward to next year. Every year a special guest joins us at the Membership Supper to add a little something extra. This year Brad Kelly of Farmview Market will talk to us about the new and exciting market on Hwy 441 just south of I-20: Georgia’s dream of all local everything. Tickets are $35 member, and $55 non-member.

Not a member? That’s okay! Buy your tickets at the non-member price, and you’ll get a one-year membership. We would LOVE for you to join us – our membership is growing and is a significant
